

Greetings,

Since today is World Cancer Day, it is important to recognize that one of the most prevalent cancers in the world is prostate cancer:

Did you know?

More than 230,000 men in the United States are diagnosed with prostate cancer every year. While nearly 30,000 men die from the disease annually, there are more than 2.5 million men living in the U.S. today who have been diagnosed with prostate cancer and are managing the disease. This number is estimated to reach 4.2 million men by the year 2024 as the baby boomer generation ages. These men and their spouses/partners and loved ones need information about various treatment options and management of side effects to minimize the impact of the disease and maximize the quality of life.

Us TOO provides education and support services to the prostate cancer community at no charge, which includes more than 200 volunteer-led support groups, in addition to the following resources:

- Us TOO website (www.ustoo.org)
- Inspire online prostate cancer communities (UsTOO.inspire.com)
- Toll-free Us TOO Prostate Cancer HelpLine (1-800-808-7866); including matching callers with similar survivors for peer-to-peer conversations
- Support group services & telephone support group
- Monthly Hot SHEET newsletter
- Frequent 'News You Can Use' updates and articles
- Educational content – digital and printed
- Educational events and presentations including Community Conversations on Prostate Cancer
- Educational videos
- Military Veteran resources – Agent Orange web page
- Anxiety & depression educational content – Coming soon!

On World Cancer Day, and every day, it is important to increase prostate cancer awareness and education to ensure informed decision making on all aspects of managing the disease.

Affected by prostate cancer? Us TOO.

Please let us know if we can provide you with additional information about prostate cancer, educational resources, or support services.

All the best,
